Weekly Curriculum Guide

Math:

We will be learning about fact families and finishing up unit 1. Our 1st math test will be on Tuesday, October 1st. I will be sending home study materials on Friday.

We will take our 1st subtraction timed test this Thursday, September 26th. The students will have 10 minutes to complete 100 problems.

Social Studies:

Students will learn about seasons and climate. We will also practice reading a table.

Vocabulary Words: climate

Language Arts:

In Reading we will read "Finding Cal". We will continue to focus on character, setting and events in a story. We will begin using context clues to figure out meanings of unknown words.

Vocabulary: decide, different, friendship, glance, proper, relationship, stares, trade

In Language we will be learning about subjects of sentences as well as the format of a friendly letter – greeting and closing.

In Foundations we will review the bonus letter rule with the letters ff, ll, and ss.

Trick words: shall, full, pull (students need to memorize these words)

Trick words are new for us this week. These are words that students need to study and memorize because they don't tap out or follow the rules.

Read 20 minutes nightly

Additional Information

Happy Birthday

Please send back the students Poetry Binders and Very Busy 2nd Grader Journals each Monday. They will be sent home again at the end of the week and we will continue this process throughout the year. The Very Busy 2nd Grader journals will come home every other week. Thank you for all of your help and support!

Mrs. Gradert will be coming in for our first Counselor's lesson of the year this week. We look forward to seeing her on Wednesday!

Just a reminder that we have our Waiver Day on Monday. I know that book orders are due that day. I will not put in the order though until Tuesday evening.

Picture Day is on Thursday. Be sure to send your child with a big smile that day!

Grandparent's Day is on Friday! The students are looking forward to spending time with their grandparents and eating lunch with them!
